

Callaway Golf Signs Phil Mickelson

CARLSBAD, Calif., Oct. 29, 2014 /PRNewswire/ -- Callaway Golf (NYSE: ELY) today announced that longtime Staff Professional Phil Mickelson has signed a multiyear extension with the company.

"When I joined the team at Callaway 10 years ago, I knew I was making the best decision of my career," Mickelson said. "And I feel even stronger about that decision today. Backed by innovative technologies, industry-leading products, and the outstanding R&D group that works so closely with me, I honestly believe that these next few years will be the best of my career."

Mickelson's Hall of Fame career includes five major championship victories and 42 PGA Tour wins. As a Staff Pro, he will continue to play Callaway clubs, a Callaway golf ball and carry a Callaway Staff Bag.

"We are thrilled to extend our partnership with Phil," said Callaway Golf President & CEO Chip Brewer. "He has meant so much to Callaway, and he continues to inspire us to develop the most innovative equipment in golf."
