CONTACT(S): Larry Dorman, Krista Mallory (760) 931-1771

CARLSBAD, CA., March 21, 2000 – Callaway Golf Company (NYSE:ELY) has announced the appointment of Donna L. Kaptain to the post of Senior Vice President, Human Resources. Ms. Kaptain replaces Beth O'Mea, who is retiring from the Company.

Ms. Kaptain, age 43, has a strong background in domestic and international human resources. She has previously served as Corporate Vice President of Human Resources for Maxwell Technologies, where she planned and managed all human resources efforts for 1,200 employees across the company's five subsidiaries. Prior to that, Ms. Kaptain was Corporate Vice President of Administration for TV/COM International, Inc. In her two decades in the human resources field, Ms. Kaptain has built a strong results-oriented track record with experience across multiple administrative disciplines. Ms. Kaptain has a BA in Management from the University of Redlands.

"Donna brings a wealth of experience and knowledge to Callaway Golf," said Chuck Yash, President of Callaway Golf Company and President and CEO of Callaway Golf Ball Company. "Her track record is impeccable and we believe she will have a strong, positive impact on our Human Resources Department in her role as its new leader."
